

MONKEY

炎

HOW TO LEARN THE ART OF TOWEL FOLDING

ELEPHANT

KOALA

YY RoyalCaribbean

Lay full size towel flat.

Roll one end of the towel.

Roll both ends until they meet in the center.

Ensure that the rolls are tight and even.

Fold together making sure that the center seam is on the outside.

Gently pull out each end of roll.

Follow steps 1-3 for the Lobster (page 10) and curl front feet in.

Lift center of towel up and over the front legs.

5  Position head

 as shown here.

4

Fold and roll back end of towel a few times to form back legs.

Sculpt body as shown and accessorize!

$\square$
Lay out full size towel. Roll short edge 1/3 toward center.

Shape curved edges as shown.

This is the finished look for towel #1.

Take a full size towel and place it on top of shaped towel.

Create pleats as shown.

This is the finished look after shaping.

Shape it as a lobster tail

10
Fold corners to meet in center.

Fold back bottom of face cloth as seen here.

Fold face cloth in half again.

Place head on top of the monkey's body and add accessories!

Roll long edges to center until they meet.

$\uparrow$
Lay hand towel flat.
(Can also be made with full size towel).

Fold ends of towel to meet as shown.

Fold bottom edge up toward point.

Turn towel towards you, pull out from center and refold.

Fold top point toward bottom point.

Tightly roll and shape ends toward center as shown.

Curl trunk and shape ears as shown. (If trunk won't stay curled, step 5 was not rolled tight enough).

Place head on body and accessorize!

Turn towel towards you, pull out from center and refold.

Hold bottom points, gently pull apart and flip.

Lay full size towel flat.

Fold ends of towel to meet as shown.

Roll outside edges to meet as shown.

Make a "Z" fold to create body and head.

Place head on body
and accessorize!
Follow steps 4-6 for the Elephant's head (page 4), but continue to curl the trunk over the top and tuck it in behind the head.

Shape ears as shown, and tuck into head.

Ensure that the rolls are tight and even.

Add folded face
cloth to tail end and accessories!

1
Follow steps 1-8 for the Monkey's body (page 2) and rest it down.

Follow steps 4-6 for the Elephant's head (page 4), but continue to curl the trunk over the top and tuck it in behind the head.

Shape ears.

Repeat for right side.

Fold top 2
inches of edge behind and roll sides to center.

Roll sides
into center

Turn over and fold down ears.

Place the head on the body and accessorize!

Spread out hand towel and fold it in half, long ways.

Hold down top center of towel and bring top layer of bottom left corner to midline.

